The brutal killing of 15 year old schoolboy, Toyosi Shitta-bey, has shocked the entire community. This crime is not typical of the community of Tyrrelstown or of greater Blanchardstown but we want to ensure that it never happens again. We want to ensure that this tragedy is turned to good by mobilising all communities and ethnic groups to work together for a better society for us and for our children.

ALL COMMUNITIES COME TOGETHER

We are appealing to all communities to come together and turn out this Saturday in Dublin City Centre for a united show of solidarity with Toyosi's family and friends and for a tolerant society, free of racism.

COMMUNITY GROUPS, FOOTBALL CLUBS, SCHOOL STUDENTS, TRADE UNIONS, POLITICAL GROUPS
– PLEASE COME OUT AND BRING BANNERS AND POSTERS
